Property Description

La Perla de la Bahia is a beautiful setting built to a typical charming Andalusian style. Direct access from the community garden to the beach. The architecture and design draw extensively on the traditional Moorish heritage of the area, while natural colours and materials make for harmonious living. In keeping with tradition, water features prominent in the gardens and public areas of the grounds, with inviting pools and delicate tinkling fountains. This semi-detached house offers a huge living space with private terraces and garden. From a private entrance and large Andalusian doorway you can find a spacious lounge and dining area, kitchen and one large bedroom with en-suite. On the top level you have two more bedrooms again spacious and light, both bedrooms are accompanied with en-suite bathrooms. Throughout the property you have large windows to make the most of an abundance of natural sun light while external terraces and gardens offer both privacy and space. Additionally you have a small private plunge pool, one of many communal pool areas is just meters away and the beach less than 50 meters. Private parking included in the price.
