Property Description

We are pleased to offer this three bedroom, corner townhouse in the popular location of Arroyo Vaquero, situated west of Estepona and located on the beach side offering easy access to a quiet and peaceful stretch of beach. The property itself is distributed across two levels, with the main living area on the top and bedroom on the lower level with access to a patio area/parking area. On the entry level you are greeted to an open plan living area with shared dining and living area offering fire place and direct access to the terrace, american style kitchen and separate utility room. The bottom level consists of three bedrooms, the master offers an en-suite bathroom and direct access to the patio, while two smaller bedrooms share a family bathroom. A great option for those looking close to the beach and town of Estepona, contact us today for further information.
